Program Terms:

- All Consultants and Customers with active autoship orders are eligible to participate in the Program.
- Participants may redeem their initial accumulated reward points upon participating in the program for 3 consecutive months. All subsequent reward points earned for continued participation in the Program may be redeemed immediately and do not require a waiting period.
- Participants may skip one month of their participation in the Program and still keep their reward points. Skipping more than one month will result in points being reset.
- Free products do not have volume and cannot be counted towards qualification for sales commissions or promotions.
